ONE BREAD, ONE BODY ANNUAL APPEAL 2017

Goal: $20,413.00

Week 15 Total Pledged: $17,074.15

Week 15 Total Participation: 52 Families

84 % of goal

THANK YOU for your generous support of the 2017 One Bread, One Body Annual Catholic Appeal. Currently as an Archdiocese we are at 83% of our goal to support ministries that serve children and adults throughout our local Church. If you have not yet pledged your support, it's not too late! Please join your fellow parishioners in helping to make possible the vital work of your local Church. Help your Archdiocese Go Green! Make your pledge securely online at www.archdioceseofanchorage.org/donate.

ELECTRONIC GIVING

Enjoy the Convenience of Electronic Giving! OLA wants to remind you that we offer electronic giving as a way to automate your regular offering. Electronic giving offers convenience, as well as providing a much-needed donation consistency for our parish.

Go to www.kenaicatholicchurch.org at any time to set up and maintain your automatic donation plan. Questions or assistance please contact the parish office.

STEWARDSHIP & THE NEW EVANGELIZATION

"As each one has received a gift, use it to serve one another as good stewards of God's varied grace" (1 Pt 4:10). What identifies a steward? Safeguarding material and human resources and using them responsibly are one answer; so is generous giving of time, talent, and treasure. But being a Christian steward means more. As Christian stewards, we receive God's gifts gratefully, cultivate them responsibly, share them lovingly in justice with others, and return them with increase to the Lord.

Please stay tuned for upcoming prayer workshops, seminars, and information.

PALLIUM MASS FOR ARCHBISHOP ETIENNE

Come and celebrate The Liturgy for the Imposition of the Pallium on Friday, September 8, 2017 at 6:00PM Mass at Our Lady of Guadalupe Co-Cathedral. The Mass will be con-celebrated by the Apostolic Nuncio, His Excellency Christophe Pierre and Archbishop Etienne. There will be a reception following in the Lunney Center.

WHAT IS A PALLIUM?

The modern pallium is a circular band about two inches wide, worn about the neck, breast, and shoulders, and having two pendants, one hanging down in front and one behind. The pendants are about two inches wide and twelve inches long, and are weighted with small pieces of lead covered with black silk. The remainder of the pallium is made of white wool, part of which is supplied by two lambs presented annually as a tax by the Lateran Canons Regular to the Chapter of St. John on the feast of St. Agnes, solemnly blessed on the high altar of that church after the pontifical Mass, and then offered to the pope. The ornamentation of the pallium consists of six small black crosses — one each on the breast and back, one on each shoulder, and one on each pendant.

The pallium is worn over the chasuble. The use of the pallium is reserved to the Pope and Metropolitan Archbishops, but the latter may not use it until, on petition they have received the permission of the Holy See.

The pope may use the pallium at any time. Others, even archbishops, may use it only in their respective dioceses, and there only on the days and occasions designated in the "Pontificale" (i.e. Christmas and other specified great feasts; during the conferring of Holy orders, the consecration of abbots, etc.), unless its use is extended by a special privilege.

Worn by the pope, the pallium symbolizes the plenitudo pontificalis officii (i.e. the plenitude of pontifical office); worn by archbishops, it typifies their participation in the supreme pastoral power of the pope, who concedes it to them for their proper church provinces.

The new palliums are solemnly blessed after the Second Vespers on the feast of Saints Peter and Paul, and are then kept in a special silver-gilt casket near the Confessio Petri until required. The pallium is conferred in Rome by a cardinal-deacon, but placed on the Metropolitan Archbishop in his own diocese, by his representative, the Apostolic Nuncio; in both cases the ceremony takes place during the celebration of Mass.

LITURGY OF THE WORD & COMMUNION SERVICE

On Saturday, September 2nd and Sunday, September 3rd, our Sunday celebration will be in the absence of a priest. Deacon Kevin will lead a Liturgy of the Word and Communion Service.

Thank you to all the families and individuals who are using online giving and Thank you to all the new families and individuals who have signed up for online giving most recently. I guess this is not a secret anymore!!

Thank you to everyone who tithes to our parish!! Tithing or sharing your financial treasure, either by online giving or by placing the tithe in the offertory basket, contributes to the financial well-being of Our Lady of the Angels. Here is what just a few of the parishioners who use E-giving or online giving have to say about it:

- ☺ “Electronic giving allows me to share my gifts with the OLA community without thinking about it, even when I am out of town.” ~ Tim Agosti
- ☺ “E-giving simplifies and prioritizes tithing in our busy lives. No more forgetting or blank looks at each other when realizing we forgot the checkbook and cash at home at Sunday Mass!! We never forget, and never have to worry about it!!” ~ Rose Henry
- ☺ “I like the convenience of it. If I’m out of town and miss church I can still give.” ~ Blaine Gilman
- ☺ “E-giving helps us to intentionally budget our tithing without the worry of remembering to write out a check.” ~Deacon Kevin

When you give online, you can set up your contributions on a weekly, monthly, or a one time basis. Contributions can be debited automatically from your checking or savings account or processed using your credit or debit card. If you still wish to place something in the offertory basket, there are small green cards located on the table next to the sacristy that state “I give electronically”. To set up your family with online giving, please visit our webpage www.kenacatholicchurch.org and click on the {ONLINE GIVING} button or click on the {GIVING} icon on myParish App. Any questions or assistance in setting up your account, please feel free contact me.

THE 2017 ANNUAL CATHOLIC APPEAL

YOU are called to steward your gifts from God.

When you pledge your support for the 2017 One Bread One Body Annual Catholic Appeal, you help make possible diocesan-wide ministries that offer opportunities for ongoing conversation and lifelong faith formation.

Please prayerfully consider making a gift to this year's Annual Catholic Appeal.

The amount of your gift matters far less than your participation as an active steward of these vital ministries.

Your Archdiocese's Mission

The Catholic Archdiocese of Anchorage is a people of many cultures, called by the love of Christ to proclaim the Gospel, celebrate the sacraments and give witness through joyful lives of prayer and service.

Help your Archdiocese Go Green! Give online:
www.archdioceseofanchorage.org/donate

Our parish is less than $3500 from meeting our 2017 goal. Thank you to the 52 families who have already pledged. If you have not pledged please prayerfully consider pledging. Let's make our 2017 goal!

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults or sometimes commonly called RCIA is the process for a person to either be baptized or come into full communion with the Catholic Church.

This ancient rite was restored by Vatican II as a way for individuals to learn about and to be received into a new life in the Catholic Church.

If you are interested in learning more about the RCIA process please contact Deacon Kevin at the parish office. Plans are being made to begin classes soon.
