STEWARDSHIP & THE NEW EVANGELIZATION

Stewards of Creation

The Bible contains a profound message about the stewardship of material creation: God created the world, but entrusts it to human beings. Caring for and cultivating the world involves the following:

- Joyful appreciation for the God-given beauty and wonder of nature;
- Protection and preservation of the environment, which would be the stewardship of ecological concern;
- Respect for human life—shielding life from threat and assault, doing everything that can be done to enhance this gift and make life flourish; and
- Development of this world through noble human effort—physical labor, the trades and professions, the arts and sciences. We call such effort “work.” Work is a fulfilling human vocation.

The Second Vatican Council points out that, through work, we build up not only our world but the Kingdom of God, already present among us. Work is a partnership with God—our share in a divine human collaboration in creation. It occupies a central place in our lives as Christian stewards.

A LITTLE BIT OF HUMOR...

The children were lined up in the cafeteria of a Catholic elementary school for lunch. At the head of the table was a large tray of apples. A nun lettered a note and posted it on the apple tray: "Take only ONE. God is watching."

Moving along the lunch line, at the other end was a large tray of chocolate chip cookies. A girl wrote a note, which she put next to the tray of cookies, "Take all you want. God is watching the apples."

NOVEMBER: A MONTH OF REMEMBERING

November is a special month in the Church. It is a month in which we remember in a special way the faithful departed. In the foyer of the church, there is a book in which you may write the name or names of loved ones who have died. During the month of November, beginning with All Souls Day Mass, we will honor and remember in a special way all the people whose names are written in the book. The names written in the book will be read during the All Souls Day Mass on November 2nd @ 6:00 pm. At the Mass on Saturday, November 25th, we will have the luminaria displayed to remember our loved ones.

RESPECT LIFE MONTH

until the end of the age."*
